

MAYOR'S YOUTH COUNCIL

Nov. –Dec. 2004

Appointed Positions Filled

The MYC met twice in November. At their November 8th meeting, one of their first agenda items was to make appointments from the applications they had received. The appointments made were: Clerk: Precious Bowling, Parliamentarian: Danielle Nichols, Historian: Chloe Kendall and Human Relations Board Liaison: Katie Sapkosky

The MYC met on December 8th for their regular council meeting. The business items for that evening included appointing liaisons to the Park & Recreation and Tourism Committee. Alycia York was appointed as the Park & Recreation liaison and Lauren Dixon was appointed as the Tourism Committee liaison.

MYC are Santa's Helpers

The Mayor's Youth Council were Santa's Helper's during the recent "Breakfast With Santa" event held at Harris Field. Santa arrived by Fire Truck and the kiddies all loved it! The MYC members helped the children paint ceramics and get their picture taken with Santa. They also served food, collected tickets, and assisted with the always popular face painting. A few snowballs were also exchanged as the children played in the snow brought in especially for the event. The MYC members who participated were: Ashlei Harris, Terrance Harvey, Julie Mundo, Brandon Williams, Christina Cowart, Nick Pascuzzo, Alycia York, Beatrice Diehl,

Yamel Ben-cosme, Lauren Dixon, Katie Sapkosky, Khaleah Evelyn and Chloe Kendall. Special thanks to Moe

Hakssa, MYC Mentor and owner of Lumo Printing, for donating matching polo shirts for the MYC to wear during community events!

HOLIDAY APPRECIATION DINNER

On December 15th the Mayor and Council honored the council chaired volunteer committees with a Holiday Appreciation Dinner at the Senior Citizens Center. The committees present were the: Mayor's Youth Council, Tourism Committee, Education Committee and Homestead/Florida City Human Relations Board.

The Mayor and Council addressed the group and thanked them for all of their hard work throughout the year and their dedication to the community. After eating and socializing, the evening concluded with door prize drawings that included hand crafted items made by the Senior Citizens and poinsettia plants. It was a wonderful evening!

A "Secret Santa" gift exchange took place before the dinner began.

MYC Mayor Evelyn introduced the Mayor's Youth Council members that were present.
