

City of Homestead Mayor's Youth Council Application

Application for membership is open to students in the Homestead Feeder Pattern District, in grades 9-12. The Council shall represent all neighborhoods and the diverse populations in the Homestead area. The majority of the members shall be residents in the City of Homestead. A panel of residents shall select a total of 30 members, and selection will not be made solely on the basis of academic, leadership or organizational skills, but rather on the following:

Interest in participating on the Council; Willingness to be part of a team that discusses local issues affecting youth; And commitment to attend all required meetings for the yearlong term appointed.

All applicants must complete the following application and return to Homestead City Hall, Office of the Mayor and City Council or mail to:

City of Homestead
Attn: Patty Sullivan
790 North Homestead Blvd.
Homestead, FL 33030
